CURE v. CURE, &c.

LUTETIA CURE (Compl^t), late wife of Geo. Cure, of Newington, dec^d, was marr^d about two y^{rs} since to the s^d Geo. Cure. who afterw^d (about May 7 K. Cha^s) settled a jointure of £20 p ann. out of certain tenem^{ts} in Newington Butts, Philip Thompson, cit. & Joyner, & Tho^s Croslye, cit. & clothworker, of Lond., being trustees of the deed of settlem^t. Shortly after marriage the s^d Geo. Cure possessed himself of £70 of her money, & soon after Compl^t had to maintain herself, & had like to have starved; & about a year & a half after marriage the s^d Geo. Cure died, & his son & h. Tho^s Cure & Lettice his wife, Edward Threel, & Henry Hanninge tenants of the afs^d tenem^{ts} in Newington Butts, got possession of the s^d deed of settlem^t & refuse payment of the annuity of £20. saying that the s^d tenem^{ts} were made over to him by his s^d father, Geo. Cure, prior to the alleged settlem^t. Compl^t therefore prays that the s^d Thomas Cure & Lettice his wife, with the tenants of the s^d messuages may be summoned to answer the s^d Bill of complaint.

On 29 Jan. 1632, the def^{ts} Tho^s Cure & Lettice his wife, & the aforenamed tenants of the said Messuages reply that by deed (11 Ja^s I.) betw. the s^d Geo. Cure of 1 p^t & John Lyttylburye of the other part, & for £200 paid by Edw^d Lyttylbury, father of the s^d John, to the s^d Geo. Cure, & in consideration of a conveyance of lands at Enfield, co. Midd., by the s^d Edw^d Lyttylburye to his da. Lettice, who was about to marry Thomas Cure, the s^d George Cure conveyed his chief mess. & all his lands & tents. in Newington to the use of himself the s^d Geo. Cure for life, rem^r to his then wife Hellen for her life, & after her death to the s^d Tho^s Cure & his heirs. The s^d Geo. Cure, being about 75 years old, marr^d the Compl^t, the marriage being brought about by one M^r Croslye, who received money for the same. The s^d def^s have not possession, nor do they know anything of the s^d pretended deed of Jointure. That the s^d tenem^{ts} were conveyed by Ind^{re} (8 July, 11 Jac. I.) from Geo. Cure to the s^d Tho^s Cure, Thomas Goldingham of the Inner Temple, Esq., John Williams, Rob^t Davies, & Alex^r Bushe, gent., being witnesses. The def^s therefore pray that the case may be dismissed.

CURE v. HINTON, 20 MAY, 1640.

GEORGE CURE, of the Inner Temple, London, gent., on behalf of the Compl^t, Frances his wife. Sir Francis Jones, late of London, knt., dec^d, grandfather to the afs^d Frances Cure, purchased (in the name of Thomas Bankcroft) the impropriations of the parsonages of Uffington, Braken, & Wolston, & a farm called Hardwell, & after his decease the right descended to his eld. son Abraham Jones (father of the Compl^t, Frances Cure), who having lands of the value of £800 per ann. which would descend to his son & h. app^t, and not having personal Estate sufficient to make provision for his younger children, the s^d Abraham Jones joined with Thomas Bankcroft, & conveyed the impropriations & farm afores^d to the use of the s^d Compl^t & William Jones & Richard Jones, younger sons of the said Abraham. Which Abraham Cure soon after died, the s^d Compl^t Frances being then an infant, & Susan Jones, her mother, entered upon the s^d premises in right of her child^r, and under pretence of their benefit, became possessed of all the evidences, & also afterwards took to husband one W^m Hinton, who combined with her to defeat the s^d Compl^t. & the other younger children, & it is believed have destroyed the evidences, because the said Susan Hinton hath of late been much troubled in conscience, confessing she had done her daughter (the s^d Compl^t) wrong in making away with the evidences or writings; & the s^d W^m Hinton hath often confessed that the three afs^d impropriations & farm belonged of right to the younger children of the s^d Susan by her first husband, & yet they go about to defraud them of their right.

The Compl^t prays that the s^d W^m Hinton & Susan his wife may be summoned to appear & answer the above complaint.

[Bill of Complaint only.]

CURE v. LENNE. BILL AND ANSWER. 17 MAY, 1641.

GEORGE CURE, of the Inner Temple, gent., Francis Braxton, of London, Painter Stayner, & Jane his wife, Compls.

Whereas one Mark Lenne, of London, Paynterstayner, late dec^d, being a bachelor,¹ marr^d the afores^d Compl^t. Jane Cure, with the proviso that he should make her a good jointure. About a year after the s^d Marke Lenne falling sick was reminded of his promise, & did make his will, and devised a third of his estate to his s^d wife Jane, a third to his daughter Dorothy Lenne, & to any child his wife might go with at his decease, & the remaining third to his brother Humphrey Lenne, whom he made Ex^{or}. The s^d Marke Lenne died in S^t Bride's, London, about Nov. 1637, his estate amounting in value to about £1,500, the s^d Humphrey proving the will, & promising to account to the s^d Jane for her third.

About two years since the afores^d Francis Braxton marr^d the s^d Jane Lenne, widow, & applied for a settlement of the matter. The s^d Humphrey lent them £100, promising to make an accompt to them of the said third part, but now refuses to do so, & says that the estate was worth very little, & testator was much in debt at time of his decease.

Answer of Humphrey Lynne, 22 May, 1641. That the s^d Marke at his marriage was to receive £200, of which not more than £50 was paid, & he does not believe the s^d Marke made any promise as to a jointure. That in Dec^r 1637, he died at his house in S^t Bride's, & by his will gave one third of his estate to the said Jane, one third to his dau. Dorothy Lynne (by a former wife), & to such child or children as his wife Jane might have or be with at his decease.

That the estate was valued at £885. 6. 6, of which £200 were desperate debts.

The def^t is quite ready to make a statement to the Court.

CURE v. CURE. (26 Apr. 1659.)

CICILIE CURE (Compl^t), widow, relict of Mathew Cure, cit. & merch^t Taylor of London, which Mathew Cure died without issue, & his cousins german & next of kin Richard Cure & Mathew Cure have confederated together with others unknown, to deprive Compl^t. of her rights in his estate. The s^d Mathew made the afs^d Richard Ex^{or} of his Will.

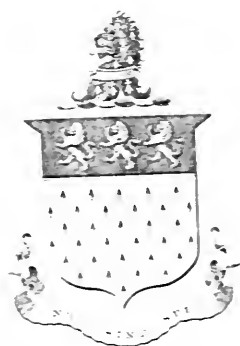

The Def^{ts}. deny the above allegation.
